

Which licensure course is right for you?

FOR NEW DOE REQUIREMENTS AS OF FALL 2019

The Center for Teaching Excellence currently offers the following courses that align to the Virginia Department of Education requirements for teachers with a provisional license or special education: general curriculum provisional license. Please use the following guide to help choose the courses that fit your specific endorsement needs. If you need further assistance please contact our Academic Program Advisor (866)-212-8704.

Elementary Education PK-3, PK-6

- ◆ EDU-L251 Foundations of Ed & the Teaching Profession
- ◆ EDU-L345 Foundations of Reading & Writing
- ◆ EDU-L346 Reading & Language Acquisition
- ◆ EDU-L360 Human Growth, Development & Learning
- ◆ EDU-L408 Classroom & Behavior Management
- ◆ EDU-L409 Assessment of and for Learning
- ◆ EDU-L446 Curriculum & Instruction PK-6

Secondary Education (HS), Career-Technical Endorsed Areas & K-12 Areas (PE, Spanish, Art, etc)

- ◆ EDU-L251 Foundations of Ed & the Teaching Profession
 - ◆ EDU-L358 Reading Literacy in the Content Areas
 - ◆ EDU-L360 Human Growth, Development & Learning
 - ◆ EDU-L408 Classroom & Behavior Management
 - ◆ EDU-L409 Assessment of and for Learning
 - ◆ EDU-L482 Curriculum & Instruction Grades 6-12 **
- Or EDU-L483 Curriculum & Instruction for Career-Tech
- Or LAN-L382 Methods of Teaching Foreign Language

EDU-L482 Approval/acceptance by DOE may vary based on license endorsement area (i.e. K-12 endorsements such as H/PE, Art, and Music may require curriculum/instruction to be specific to that endorsement). To insure your exact licensure needs are met, the CTE encourages course participants to seek course approval from their employing school division licensure contact or their VA DOE licensure evaluator if in question. The CTE can additionally provide some licensure guidance.

Special Education: General Curriculum

- ◆ EDU-L251 Found. of Ed & the Teaching Profession
- ◆ EDU-L345 Foundations of Reading & Writing
- ◆ EDU-L346 Reading & Language Acquisition
- ◆ EDU-L348 Inst. Strategies in Reading & Writing
- ◆ EDU-L360 Human Growth, Development & Learning
- ◆ EDU-L369 Found. of Sp Ed, Legal Aspect & Char. *
- ◆ EDU-L373 Characteristics of Students with Disabilities
- ◆ EDU-L375 Assessment & Evaluation in Sp. Ed.
- ◆ EDU-L383 Individualized Ed Prog.(IEP) Implementation
- ◆ EDU-L400 Instructional Strategies in Mathematics
- ◆ EDU-L408 Classroom & Behavior Management
- ◆ EDU-L409 Assessment of and for Learning
- ◆ EDU-L455 Transitioning Students with Disabilities
- ◆ EDU-L456 Collaboration, Consultation & Case Mgmt.

*EDU-L369 meets the foundations of special education & legal aspects course required to initially obtain a provisional Special Education: General Curriculum teaching license.

Contact Us: cte@uvawise.edu
(866) 212-8704